JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that defendant, Billy Ngo, is committed on count two of the indictment in Docket No. 05-00807 and count four of the second superseding indictment in Docket No. 06-00372(B) to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 15 months. This term consists of 15 months on each of count two of the indictment in Docket No. 05-00807 and count four of the second superseding indictment in Docket No. 06-00372(B), to be served concurrently.

On release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions: This term consists of three years on count two of the indictment in Docket No. 05-00807 and three years on count four of the second superseding indictment in Docket No. 06-00372(B), all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05;
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer;
4. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
5. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

USA vs. Billy Cheng NgoDocket No.: CR 05-807 and CR 06-372

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $1,000. The sum of $1,000 shall be paid immediately, and any unpaid balance of the fine shall be paid in monthly installments of $100 during the period of supervision. These payments shall begin within 30 days after the date of this judgment.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the fine is waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on January 10, 2013. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building 255 East Temple Street in Los Angeles, California 90012.

The Court advised the defendant of the right to appeal this judgment. Bond exonerated upon surrender.

The Court grants the government's oral motion to dismiss the remaining counts of the Indictment as to this defendant.

The Court recommends that defendant be designated to a detention facility located in Southern California.

SENTENCING FACTORS: The sentence is based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553, including the applicable sentencing range set forth in the guidelines, as more particularly reflected in the court reporter's transcript.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
